"Wormwood Star describes a magickal woman and artist, not as a tragedy as is all too tritely easy to do to those who have been allotted the role of a magickal partner, but as a true Babalon. A woman and creative being in her own right who, rather than change to the dictates of oppressive society, became a defining part of a changing one.

Her creative source was boundless. She made art and magick and drama wherever she went. She was also a woman of the earth and of family. This book does a good job revealing her history and her mystery via all the people she touched. The source of her Vision was her own. All the men in her life helped her become who she was. And what she created.
